PERSONAL INFORMATION ESSAY

Write a short essay on your personal, educational and employment background, your present financial needs, and your future plans. Continue on back if necessary.

College Club West Scholarships, to be used for tuition only, will be granted to qualified greater Cleveland women who will be chosen by the Scholarship Committee based on maturity, academic record, promise, goals, and financial need. Candidate selections will begin in April 2026. By early May, final candidates will be called for interview appointments. The College Club Scholarship Committee will interview all finalists in May 2026. Recipients will be notified within a few days. Recipients are invited to the June 10, 2026 scholarship dinner.

COMPLETE AND RETURN TERMS OF AGREEMENT FORM PAGE:

If I am granted a scholarship, I understand that the award is for one year only. I understand that my record in college will be checked. My record must meet the standards of scholarship, character and need as set by College Club West. No member of College Club West or her family is eligible for tuition grants.

I certify that I am not a member of College Club West or a relative of a member.

Signed_____Date_____

Reminder:

All scholarship applications and supporting materials are due March 16, 2026.

Mail essay, terms of agreement and financial application forms including tax return, and transcripts. The two recommendations may be emailed.
